4. At Christmas time in our country of Canada you will sometimes see a person dressed in red on the street corner. This person is dressed as Santa. I go shopping with my mama and papa at Christmas. When we go past a Santa dressed in red and ringing a bell we drop coins in the kettle beside him. I buy presents for my mama and papa and put them under our Christmas tree. On Christmas morning I find presents for me under the tree too. Most of the presents are from my mama and papa but there is always one from that man dressed in red, Santa. My mama and papa say that Santa has come to us from the north of our country, Canada. But I think that the Santa who gives me that one present is really my mama and papa.
